LUTHERAN HOSPITAL

School of Nursing

Ft. Wayne, Indiana

Prologue . . .

The theme of the 1967 Appendix is Light. Through these pages we hope to present varying aspects of our enlightenment during our years of education at Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing. Our practical experience has also shed a light on the human aspect of life and death. Although we can only present a small portion of our experiences we hope that these will serve as a reminder of the many occasions of this past year.

This year the lounge took on a new light. In December it was re-decorated by the Lutheran Hospital Auxiliary. This was indeed appreciated by the student body and we would like to give a special thank you to all those involved.

The School of Nursing Pin

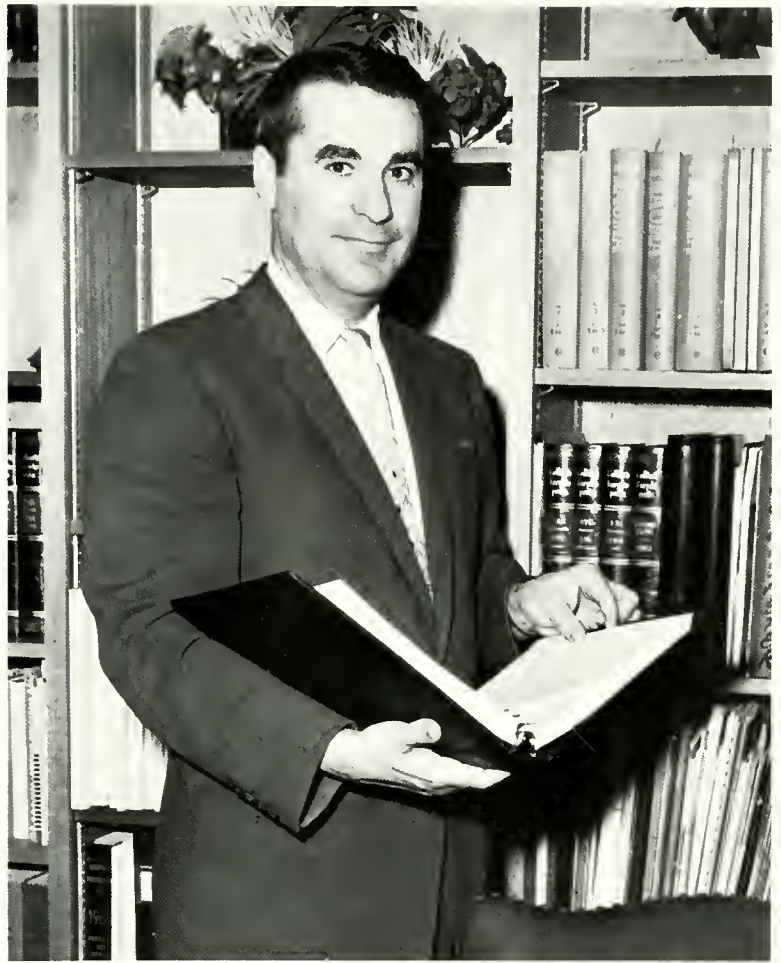

The cross, in red, is symbolic of unselfish service and of one's fellowman, and is the emblem for relief of sick and wounded.

The rose, in gold, signifies the goodness of God, and is indicative of Messianic promise and human love.

The trilobate lotus wreath is representative of esteem, honor, and merit.

The open book signifies the Word of God.

The letters L. H. S. N. denote the Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing

In Dedication

We, the Appendix staff, wish to dedicate this year's issue of the Appendix to Mr. E. Dan Butz. In our freshman year he gave to us the fundamentals of drug therapy which becomes an invaluable portion of our training. In addition, he has contributed to the welfare of each student during her life at Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing.

Thank you, Mr. Butz, for all your valuable assistance.

Administration
Faculty
Personnel

Mrs. Thomas "burns the midnight oil" in preparation for the next day's classes.

MR. EDGAR C. KRUSE,
Administrator

Mr. Kruse, administrator of our hospital, carries out his work showing his sincere interest, devotion and cheerful willingness. This year especially he has worked even more closely with the students to solve our problems and help us to become good nurses and better citizens. He is also an active community leader and strives to improve not only the hospital but the community in general.

Administration

MR. GEORGE WALLS,
Assistant Administrator

Mr. Walls aids Mr. Kruse and sees that procedures that hospital policy are carried throughout the hospital. During Fire Prevention Week, he conducted fire drills and aided each hospital unit in improving their fire drill plan and their efficiency.

MRS. CARRIE M. FILION
R.N., B.S., M.A.

Mrs. Filion, our director of nursing since 1960, has devoted countless hours, time, and energy toward intensifying our educational program, instilling in us the high ideals of nursing, as well as being acutely aware of our problems and extra-curricular activities. Under her guidance, the school in 1963, received full accreditation from the National League of Nursing. To Mrs. Filion who left for Washington in February we owe our deepest gratitude and wish her success in her new endeavor.

MISS VIRGINIA WILLIAMSON,
R.N., B.S., M.S.

Miss Williamson returned in May as the school's Educational Director. She received her Masters and Bachelors degrees from Indiana University. Holding this same position from 1961 to 1965, she proved she has a genuine interest in the hospital, nursing education in general, as well as each student nurse who enters the profession. We welcome her back!

Focus on Faculty

A variety of activities, interests, and responsibilities occupy the spare time of our faculty members. Faculty meetings are held periodically, and many standing and special committees have been formed to improve the welfare of the students and the quality of our education. Several instructors have done postgraduate work. Many have responsibilities in church and community groups. Their hobbies range from the adventure of camping and hunting to the delicate art of watch repair. Most are members of their own professional organizations, while Miss Nordholm, Miss Hensler, Mrs. Ehrman, and Mrs. Harley hold district offices or chairmanships in theirs, and Miss Hensler and Mr. Butz have duties in state organizations.

AN INFORMAL CONFERENCE is held by Mrs. Boozel, Mrs. Badgley, Mrs. Spencer, and Miss Butts.

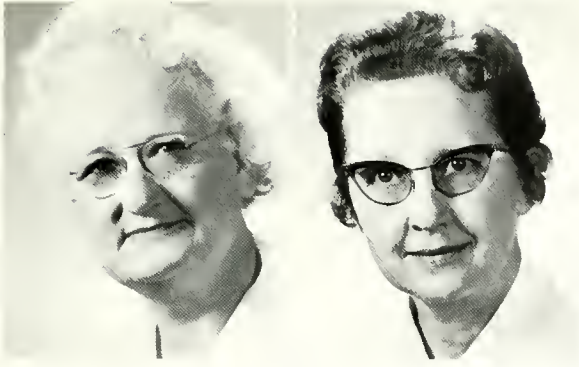

The fundamentals of nursing department was headed this year by MRS. JANE BADGLEY, R.N., who finished her seventh year at L.H.S.N. She is a graduate of St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in Cleveland, and received her B.S.N. from St. Francis College. She is a member of the Procedure Committee.

Recovery room nursing, fluid and electrolyte balance, and conditions of the ear were taught this year by MISS RUTH BECKMAN, R.N., who is a graduate of Lutheran. She is a member of the Student Welfare Committee, chairman of the Capping Committee, and advisor of the freshman class. She enjoys playing the piano and organ.

MRS. KAREN BERRY, R.N., joined the faculty this year to teach maternity nursing. She received her B.S.N. from the University of Michigan. She is on the Incidence Committee, and is secretary of the faculty. Sewing, reading, and sports are among her special interests. MRS. MARGARET BOOZEL, R.N., came to us this year from Meadville City Hospital School of Nursing. She graduated from Hamot Hospital School of Nursing and received her B.S. from Barrington College. She is a member of the Library Committee, secretary of the Admissions and Promotions Committee, and teaches fundamentals.

A graduate of Lutheran Hospital, MISS JOYCE BUTTS, R.N., has taught one year at L.H.S.N. in the fundamentals department. She is on the Incidence Committee and enjoys bowling, sewing, and music. She recently vacationed at Word of Life Camp, Scroon Lake, New York. MR. E. DAN BUTZ, has taught pharmacology at L.H.S.N. for thirteen years. He received his B.S. in pharmacy from Purdue University. He is a hospital administrative assistant, director of the hospital pharmacy, and president of the Indiana Society of Hospital Pharmacy. He enjoys collecting antiques.

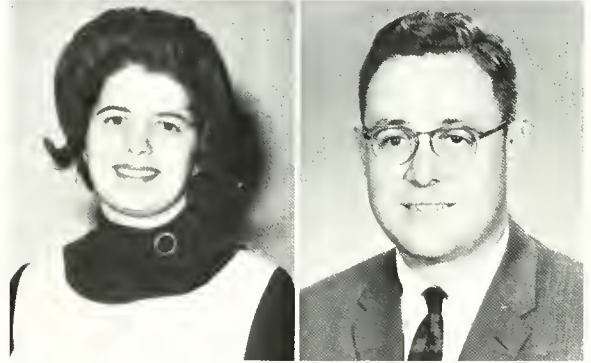

MRS. MARLENE GRINSFELDER taught freshman sociology the second semester after having taught at Purdue University, Fort Wayne Regional Campus. She received her B.A. in sociology from the University of Michigan. Two young children and various community activities leave her with little spare time.

DR. HAROLD HAAS has taught freshman psychology for the past eight years. He received his B.D. from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo., his M.A. from Washington University, and his Ph.D. from the University of Buffalo. He is also professor of psychology at Concordia Senior College.

In her tenth year at Lutheran as instructor of disaster nursing, MRS. ESTHER EHRMAN, R.N., is secretary of the Welfare Committee, chairman of the Disaster and Fire Prevention Committee, and advisor of the junior class. She is a Lutheran graduate, and is district Disaster Chairman of the ISNA.

MRS. MARY FLANIGAN, R.N., a graduate of Ball Memorial Hospital, received her B.S. from Ball State University. She is student health nurse, and teaches "The Family", is a member of the A and P Committee, Student Welfare Committee, secretary of the Student Health Committee, and advisor for the senior class.

Instructors Serve on Many Committees.

The chief dietician at Lutheran Hospital, MRS. LUCIA HARLEY, has taught normal nutrition to the freshmen for the past five years. She received her B.S. in nutrition from Purdue University. She is Public Relations chairman for the Northeast Indiana Dietetic Association and includes gardening, flower arrangement, and camping as a few of her interests.

MISS DOROTHA HENSLER, R.N., teaches endocrine, genitourinary, and gynecologic nursing. A graduate of St. Thomas School of Nursing in Nashville, she received her B.S.P.H.N. from Loyola University. She is an advisor for the Student Body, and is district and state By-Laws Committee Chairman of the ISNA.

ALOHA! Mr. McCord, Mr. Kruse, and Sonia Schroeder enjoy punch before the freshman nutrition dinner.

In the sixty day interim between the departure of Mrs. Filion and the arrival of Miss Williamson, Miss Nordholm served as acting Director of Nursing Education.

MISS NORMA HUYCK, R.N., includes eleven years of teaching at Lutheran among her many varied experiences. A graduate of St. Joseph Hospital in Fort Wayne, she now teaches Senior Experience. She is chairman of the incidence committee, and enjoys bowling and collecting stray animals.

MRS. GENEVIEVE LINDQUIST, R.N., teaches Operating Room Nursing. She is a graduate of Moline Public Hospital, Moline, Illinois, and has done post-graduate work. She is in her ninth year of teaching at Lutheran.

Our instructor in Anatomy and Physiology, Chemistry, and Microbiology, MR. ROBERT McCORD, received his B.A. and M.A. from Valparaiso University. He has also done doctoral study at the University of Oregon, and the University of Arizona.

A graduate of Lutheran, MISS BETTY NORDHOLM, R.N., received her B.A. from Valparaiso University. She teaches Orthopedics, Neurology, and Eye. She is Affiliations Coordinator, Chairman of the Student Welfare Committee, and treasurer of District One of the Indiana State Nurses' Association.

MRS. CAROL SPENCER, R.N., graduated from L.H.S.N., attended Valparaiso University, and is presently enrolled at Indiana University. She is instructor in Geriatric Nursing and counts music, traveling, and her young daughters as special interests.

REV. JOHN TEWS, our instructor in Religion, graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri, and has done graduate work at Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. When he finds some spare time from his duties as a hospital chaplain and other obligations, he enjoys hunting, fishing and repairing watches.

A graduate of Baptist Hospital School of Nursing, MRS. LORA THOMAS, R.N., has also done post-graduate work. She is co-ordinator for the Senior year, the instructor for Pediatric Nursing, and serves on several other faculty committees. Her husband and son rate high on her list of special interests as do family activities including fishing, hockey games, and vacation trips.

Academics

Except a living man there is nothing more wonderful than a book! A message to us from . . . human souls we never saw . . . And yet these arouse us, terrify us, teach us, comfort us . . .

--Kingsley

Freshmen Apply Basics Learned in

The freshman year in training is characterized by gaining in basic knowledge of science and nursing, and by growing mentally, physically and emotionally. A scientific background is needed in which to build, and we gain this through CHEMISTRY, ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY, AND MICROBIOLOGY. The principles we learn in classes and laboratories are applied in our nursing care on the floor. PSYCHOLOGY, SOCIOLOGY and RELIGION help us in our relationships with patients, hospital staff, classmates, and others we meet as work and grow. The basics of nursing are learned in FUNDAMENTALS OF NURSING, and MEDICAL-SURGICAL NURSING I, and then are applied and practiced in the clinical areas. PHARMACOLOGY gives us the background so we know why we are giving a drug, and what we expect it to do for our patients.

SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPALS LEARNED in lectures are put to use in the various laboratory experiments. Here Linda Parsons uses sterile technique to inoculate in Microbiology Lab.

BASICS OF MEDICATIONS are learned under supervision of the clinical areas. Carolyn Mostert and Jane Guthrie check with their team leader about a drug.

INSTRUCTORS HELP in finding solutions to problems encountered in floor work. Patty Hudson sees the light breaking through after talking with Mrs. Boozel.

Labs and Lectures

"SO THAT'S HOW IT'S DONE" Class hours are varied with lectures, demonstrations, team teaching, experimentation, and outside speakers to help us not only hear, but see how something is done. After the lectures we keep busy by practicing in the labs.

"MAKE SURE THE CORNER IS SQUARE!" Julie Hartman didn't know there's so much in making a bed--a hospital bed anyway.

EVERY LEARNING OPPORTUNITY IS USED to the fullest, especially in bandaging. Would you believe Kathy Degitz is the poor patient--all in the name of education!

MRS. FLORENCE NIGHTGOWN IS THE IDEAL PATIENT for freshman students and she never complains, even for the mistakes we make. Cheryl Pekkala give "emotional support" as Sue Stein gives her first injection. "Now that didn't even hurt, did it?"

Care Studies Augment

Care studies, research papers, Monday clinical conferences, and V.A. affiliation punctuate the junior year. Divided into four rotations of three months each, it involves concentrated study of the body systems, correlated with daily clinical work with patients with corresponding conditions.

Four weeks of the GERIATRIC rotation are spent in studying TUBERCULOSIS nursing in Indianapolis. During the remaining eight weeks the junior students study body metabolism and the special needs of the aging section of our society.

The SURGERY rotation was modified this year to include not only experience in surgery and the post anesthesia recovery room, but also study of the ear and fluid and electrolyte balance. Experience in the operating and recovery rooms is often approached with qualms. However, it provides an opportunity to learn more about the patient's total hospital experience.

EASY NOW, DON'T CONTAMINATE! Junior OR students open a pack in preparation for surgery.

MEALTIME ON MOELLERING ONE finds Theresa Schneider and Flo Myers helping their geriatric patients.

Junior Curriculum

One rotation is given to the study of ORTHOPEDIC, NEUROLOGIC, AND EYE conditions. Moellering II provides an excellent place to gain experience with casts, traction, circle beds, and other special equipment, and to give nursing care to orthopedic patients. Other areas of the hospital are utilized to provide experience in neurology and eye.

The rotation known as GU-GYN actually provides opportunity to study and work with patients with urologic, gynecologic, endocrine, and diabetic problems. Field trips to the Red Cross Blood Bank and Woodhaven, a home for unwed mothers, give occasion for learning of some community resources.

With these four rotations behind them, the juniors look forward to receiving their senior stripes and a well deserved vacation.

"WE'VE COME A LONG WAY TOGETHER" Lynette Downing helps her care study patient pack to leave the hospital.

Seniors Work in Special Areas, Gain

"WE'LL TAKE CARE OF YOU" Becky Fields and Carol Lauer keep close check on a patient in ER.

This year for the first time, the summer rotation at Logansport was eliminated making it necessary for the entire class to receive this training during the first three rotations. Another first was a two week Christmas vacation for the seniors as well as the juniors and freshmen. Because the summer rotation was two weeks longer than usual, it included DISASTER NURSING and PROFESSIONAL ADJUSTMENTS II for the whole class at the same time.

Growth and development and conditions particularly found in children are studied in the PEDIATRIC rotation. A wide variety of field trips enhanced the students knowledge of facilities and institutions for children.

The OBSTETRIC rotation leads to many new and rewarding experiences as education is received in labor and delivery, post partum, the newborn nursery, and the premature nursery. A highlight of OB came when each student was "on call" to receive a care study patient and follow her entire hospital experience.

As well as the study of legal aspects of nursing, SENIOR EXPERIENCE provides the opportunity to learn the techniques of emergency room care and intensive care of patients in the constant care unit. Participation in team nursing as a team leader, and acting as a head nurse during co-charge experience, offers practice that will help the student step from the category of senior student into the position of a graduate nurse.

THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE is available to students on co-charge experience. Bonnie Fischer confers with head nurse, Mrs. Minier.

Specialized Skills

A BUNDLE OF JOY is carefully dressed for his parents by Joan Quackenbush.

INTRICATE EQUIPMENT AND SKILLED HANDS are necessary in the premature nursery. Judy Dodds and Jean Darlage watch as the doctor examines their tiny patient.

"AND THEY ALL LIVED HAPPILY EVER AFTER" Jane Basilius reads to her small charges on the pediatric unit.

THE TUBERCLE BACILLUS CAN'T GET US NOW! Thorough isolation technique is used by all students and personnel.

MRS. HILDA EVANS,
Instructor

Affiliations at V.A. and

Four weeks of the junior year are spent at the V.A. Hospital in Indianapolis, where tuberculosis nursing is studied. Attention is given to the nature, prevention, and cure of the disease, rehabilitation, and the special needs of the long term patient. The theory learned in class is applied in the clinical area. Field trips, and extracurricular excursions about the city, combine to make V.A. an enjoyable experience.

FULL OF FUN, Mr. and Mrs. Lang, our houseparents, make us feel "at home."

Logansport Are Interesting and Challenging

A VIEW OF LONGCLIFFE

The senior student spends twelve weeks studying at Logansport State Hospital in Logansport, Indiana. Personality development, the various mental disorders, and their treatment are investigated. Six weeks are spent working with acute patients, and six weeks with patients with chronic disorders. Students from other schools study at Logan at the same time. Each rotation, a student government is formed and many new friendships are made.

TODAY

With every rising of the sun
Think of your life as just begun.

The past has cancelled and buried deep
All yesterdays. There let them sleep.

Concern yourself with but today.
Grasp it, and teach it to obey

Your will and plan. Since time began
Today has been the friend of man.

You and Today! A soul sublime
And the great heritage of time.

With God Himself to bind the twain,
Go forth, brave heart! Attain! Attain!

MRS. MARY FLANIGAN
FACULTY ADVISOR

We, the graduating class of 1967, express our appreciation to our advisor, Mrs. Mary Flanigan, who has given so freely of herself to help us to grow and mature as individuals in the field of nursing. We are grateful to her for the many times she has interceded for us as a class, and for the interest and concern she has shown for our social, mental and physical welfare. To her we express our deepest gratitude.

Oh no!!!

Our weekly meeting of "How To Catch a Man While Attending LHSN."

"Alone at last!"

You say you used to dance with Nureyev?

Saturday night kicks.

The masked crusader.

Those lazy, hazy, crazy days of nurses' training--at least that's how they say we'll think of it when we're through. All of the memories we'll have would fill a book. Like racing Mr. McCord around the block, attending illegal parties in the backyard, explaining that "D" to the parents, signing out, etc. You know, when you come to think of it, it's really not too bad!

Keeping in shape for all those adorable interns.

"Oh, come on, that's not what you really want."

Dorm Life

MY FRIENDS

My friends are little lamps to me,
Their radiance warms and cheers my ways,
And all the pathway dark and lone
Is brightened by their rays.

I try to keep them bright by faith,
And never let them dim with doubt;
For every time I lose a friend .
A little lamp goes out.

ELIZABETH WHITTEMORE

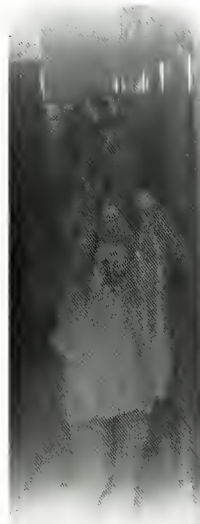

We Rise at Six

Girls, does Martz need help to get out of that bed?

That is not the way we put on our uniform.

"GOOD-MORN-ING WORLD"

Six-o'clock
THAT'S JUST TOO EARLY!

OH--
What a Night!

To Shine at Seven

STUDY HARD!

Burning the midnight oil.

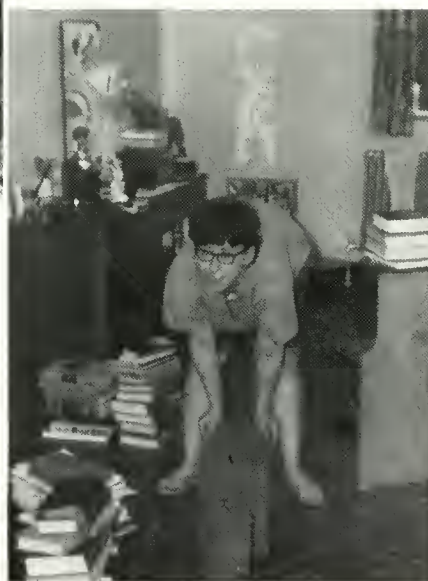

Only your hairdresser knows for sure.

WELL!

Why so glum, GIRLS?

62-35-87-30-HIKE!

Relaxing After Work

Some of the seniors relaxing in their lounge after work with some MILK and CRACKERS.

Interesting new textbook?
????????????????????

It sure can be a hard days work!

"ANGEL
IN

"Smile, YOU'RE on CANDID CAMERA."

the Social Hour

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
The cake sure looks good.

Is it all that bad??????????

Off they go to another monthly fire drill, WHAT FUN!!!!!!!
Time: 2 AM

The seniors hold a sing-a-long
by candle-light.

Packing for another weekend?

The Final Touch

Just to check to see if you were really studying.

"TOGETHERNESS"

Get that ace-bandage on right.

Study time over.

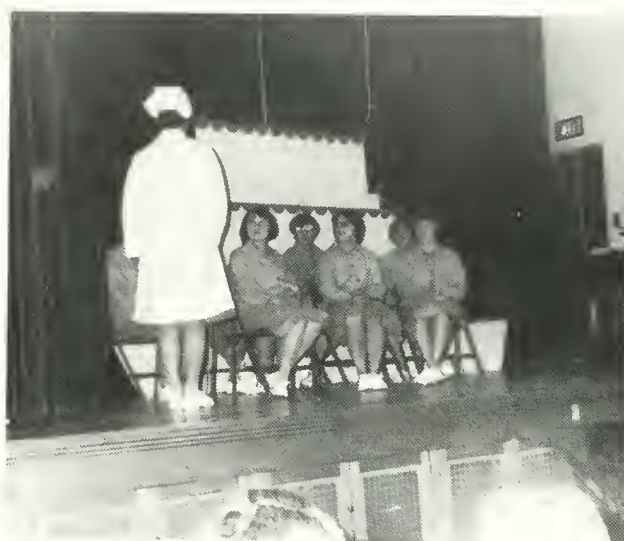

Get that clean.

Then Party Time

Seniors getting together for a Holloween party. BE Sure to get your ORAL SUBSTITUTE.

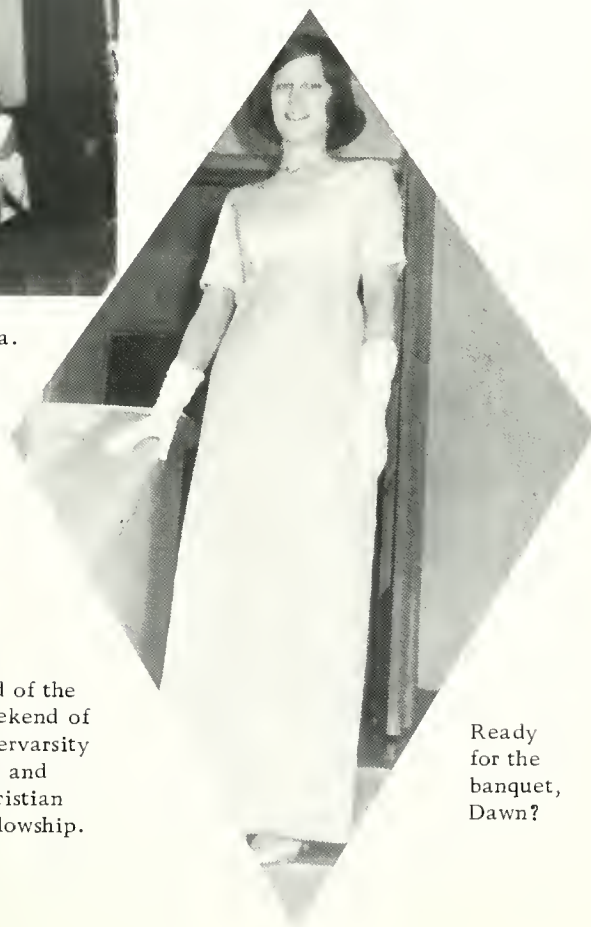

Juniors putting on a skit for their SISES.

Seniors telling us about the GOOD food in the cafeteria.

End of the weekend of Intersivity fun and Christian fellowship.

Ready for the banquet, Dawn?

Activities and Organizations

For life alone is creator of life,
And closest contact with the human world
Is like a lantern shining in the night
To light me to a knowledge of myself.

Through IANS We Become Actively Involved

Indiana Association of Nursing Students

IANS introduces its members, the nurses of tomorrow, to the American Nurses Association and the National League for Nursing, to organization itself, and to the overwhelming fact that they have a hand in the changing future of the Nursing Profession.

This organization through the National Student Nurses Association built a dormitory for student nurses in Taiwan, and started a national project to help disadvantaged groups throughout the 50 states. It also voted to back a walkout of the nurses in the San Francisco area.

"Becoming Actively Involved" in IANS was truly the theme of Mary Lowe, who was elected 2nd vice president of the state and Linda Hawbaker, who was elected Corresponding Secretary of the state. On the local level Norma Seddelmeyer was president of East District. Vivian Erkkinen and Linda Hawbaker also held local offices.

Gloria Dubach was Lutheran's representative to the Miss Student Nurse Contest. Becky Fields and a group of juniors represented us at the district talent contest. The juniors under the direction of Mary Lowe placed first in the state talent contest.

Nurses' Christian Fellowship Adds Inspiration

The Nurses' Christian Fellowship had as sponsor Miss Ethyl Schlatter who later in the year became Mrs. Gordon Klopfenstein. Under her leadership and guidance, along with that of our president, Carol Skinner, the group had many informative and inspirational meetings. These meetings were held every two weeks on a Tuesday evening. Bible studies were conducted on each floor of the residence on the Tuesday evenings when a formal meeting was not planned. Many girls participated in these Bible studies and found them quite interesting and helpful.

OUR ADVISOR: Mrs. Klopfenstein

Bi-Monthly Meetings Enrich Gamma Delta Members

Gamma Delta is the International Association of Lutheran College and University Students. Gamma stands for Gnosis which in Greek means knowledge, and Delta for Diakonia, which means service. The knowledge of Christ results in service through and to Christ.

Our Fort Wayne chapter, Epsilon Phi, involves all the colleges here. This year we have members from Concordia Senior College, Lutheran Hospital, and the Indiana-Purdue Extension.

We have had Bible studies and have attended Choral Vespers at the Senior College. Bowling, square dancing, volleyball, a hayride, and visiting the Allen County Children's Home and the Lutheran Home for the Aged have all been part of our activities. The meetings are held at varied places, and our average attendance is about twenty.

Yearbook Staff Strives Hard To Meet Deadlines

This year the yearbook was made a student body project instead of being a responsibility of the senior class. By the end of February, over 125 subscriptions were obtained. Writing copy, making layouts, and snapping pictures became a pastime for the members of the staff. They worked steadily to meet the deadline so the yearbook could be distributed before graduation.

OUR ADVISOR: Miss Hensler

The ballroom resembled the evening twilight as the lights threw their shadows upon the carefully laid tables. As the couples entered, the room was filled with the smell of flowers and the sounds of rustling skirts and quiet laughter. The meal was further enhanced by the setting and the company of friends.

After the meal was finished, all was made ready for the orchestra and dancing. Couples enjoyed dancing to the soft music as well as to the livelier tones of the orchestra. All too soon, it seemed, the clock struck midnight and the magical night was almost at an end. Any girl who attended the dinner-dance can call upon her memories and say that it was truly an "Affair of the Heart".

VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

Linda Hawbaker and Mary Lowe shown with the trophy won in the state talent contest.

Juniors performing on the stage at the state convention in Terre Haute.

FEATURE SCHOOL YEAR

Student nurses from Fort Wayne participating in the Annual Veteran's Day Parade.

Refreshments at the student body party.

Seniors giving skit at the all school party in April.

Freshmen in nutrition preparing for faculty dinner.

Day to Day Happenings Make a Bright

The seniors gave the freshmen a welcoming party upon their arrival at LHSN.

Talking on the telephone seems to be a favorite pastime around here.

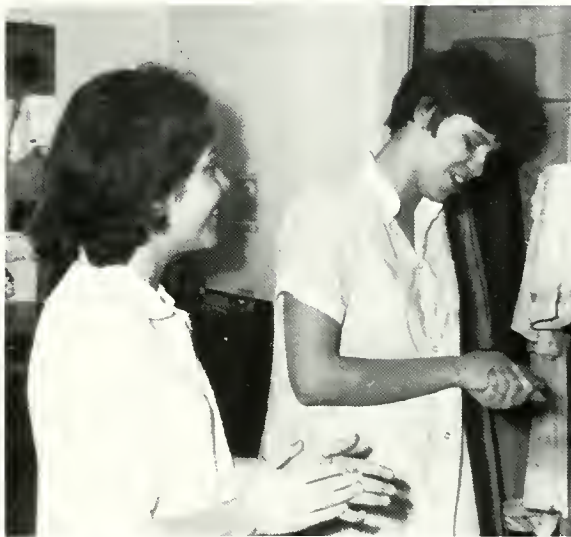

This is a common scene on third floor as Jo concentrates on styling a new hairdo.

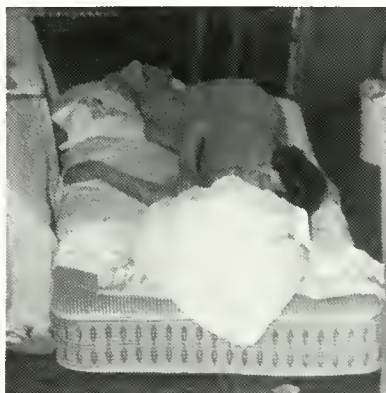

Reflection of Personal Memories

Just one more day until the next yearbook deadline. Better hurry!

Carol, what are you trying to hide from Jan?

Work surely wasn't that bad today, Jan.

It's a girl's world.

Epilogue

As we grow through our educational years, we start with a small but bright flame of knowledge. Continuing our education this light intensifies. In leaving, we hope that through further education and practice of our skills, we will shine forth.

We, the Appendix staff, would like to extend our thanks of Clippinger Studio, Mr. James Arthur, yearbook representative, Miss Dorthea Hensler, advisor, and to all those who helped to make this yearbook a success.

God be with you 'till we meet again.
